

Hotel Granvia Kyoto – A Commitment to Being a Muslim Friendly Hotel

The Hotel Granvia Kyoto, a luxury hotel located atop the magnificent Kyoto Station Complex, now continues on its forward journey towards satisfying all Muslim guests. We are pleased to announce that our Japanese Restaurant “Ukihashi” has gained the official “Local Halal” certificate from Malaysia Halal Corporation Co., Ltd. (MHC) as of April 1, 2014, following in the footsteps of our Café Restaurant “Le Temps”, which was awarded the certificate in 2013. As a Muslim Friendly Hotel, we serve a Halal menu for Muslim guests under the following strict guidelines, and we proudly assure all Muslim guests that the delicious Halal meals that they enjoy at the hotel are fully Halal certified.

Halal Menu

The Halal menu is served under the strict oversight of MHC, including all the ingredients and seasoning. All Beef and Chicken used for the menu is Halal certified.

In addition to the Halal menu, an Alcohol and Pork menu is available for non-Muslim guests at the café restaurant.

Seasonings & Spices

No alcohol, pork, or pork-related seasoning products are used in the Halal menu.

The Soy sauce and Vinegar that is commonly used in the menu also does not include any alcohol.

Tableware

All tableware used for the Halal menu are stored apart from the non-Halal tableware.

Utensils

The kitchen knives, cutting board, and pans used exclusively for cooking the Halal-menu cuisine are kept separate from the utensils used for the non-Halal food in order to avoid contamination.

Buffet Breakfast (Served at Café Restaurant “Le Temps”)

All Halal-menu buffet breakfast items are easily identified by the Halal Certification label issued by MHC.

Special Group-Guest Reservations

Please notify us for Group Guest reservations of more than 20 persons at least 3 days in advance at both restaurants. In addition to the a la carte menu, we are pleased to offer the Buffet Lunch or Dinner for Group reservations at Cafe Restaurant “Le Temps”.
